OBITUARY.

MRS. CATHERINE KUCKS.

There passed away on the 26th. instant, at the age of 60 years, an old and esteemed resident of West Moreton, in the person of Mrs. Catherine Kucks, who has lived in this district for the past 55 years, she having arrived in Queensland with her parents when only five years of age. Her mother, Mrs. M. Goos, of Tallegalla, who is 86 years of age, is still living.

The deceased, who for many years lived in the vicinity of Milbong, removed to Ipswich, and, establishing a nursing home in Brisbane-street, West Ipswich, resided there for several years. Some five years ago she transferred her calling to Rosewood, where she had control of a nursing home.

She enjoyed good health until some 14 weeks ago, when an internal complaint attacked her, and coming to Ipswich to consult her medical adviser, Dr. J. A. Cameron, she gradually grew weak. During her last stage of illness she was staying with her daughter Mrs. O. Kopelke, of West Ipswich, where she succumbed. The deceased was buried in the Ipswich cemetery on Thursday last, the ceremony at the graveside having been conducted by the Rev. T. H. Finch, of the North Ipswich Congregational Church. She leaves four daughters to mourn her loss - namely, Mrs. J. Hines, of Beaudesert; Mrs. A. Schelback of Mutdapilly; Mrs. O. Kopelke, of West Ipswich; and Mrs. E. Welshire, of Brisbane; and four sons --- Messrs. Chas. Kucks, of Normanby; John Kucks, of Darling Downs; Andrew Kucks of Booval; and Jacob Kucks, who is at the front in France.
